

YOU MIGHT NOT SUSPECT A THING.

Even If Fraudulent Activity Has Been Going On For An Entire Year.

Each incident of fraud costs on average $127,500*, goes undetected for 18 months and is usually discovered by chance. If it happens to you it can wipe out your profits, cause customers to go to your competitors and give you enough bad press to shatter your goodwill forever.* Association of Certified Fraud Examiners 2002 Report to the Nation

How Can It Go Unnoticed ?

As an organization grows, owners and managers delegate more day-to-day responsibilities to employees. Revenues could be growing and everything appears normal in the accounting records. There is no visible problem so nobody questions procedures and processes. Yet, this is the environment in which fraud is often found.

How Can It Happen ?

Your books balance to the penny even though payments are being made for products and services not received. Long-term employees know your systems and loopholes inside-out. They may come to work sick and sometimes even skip vacations. They are perceived to be loyal and dedicated. The truth is - someone else doing their job for a few days might discover their scheme. There are a multitude of ways that fraudsters can steal from you if you don't know what to look for.

What Can You Do About It ?

Get your 200-Point Fraud Alert and Security Evaluation. It will involve approximately 1 hour of your time. We will assess your systems and practices in 6 critical areas and in most cases give you the Fraud Alert and Security Assessment before we leave.

The Fraud Alert and Security Assessment.

You will receive a scorecard that reveals vulnerable areas in your organization. It is a detailed analysis of 200 points that are compared to objective criteria under these 6 categories:

General Security
Profile

Financial Controls (susceptibility to internal / external fraud)

Information Security

Risk of Crime

Physical and Electronic Security

Personnel Security
(personnel screening)

200-Point Fraud Alert and Security Evaluation

This is a comprehensive guide to give you both a fraud and security conformance rating. We have perfected this evaluation process over a 14 year period working with various types and sizes of companies to prevent fraud and security breaches. To date, none of our clients have reported an incident since we have worked with them. To assure privacy we will provide a non-disclosure agreement to guarantee information about you or your organization remains confidential and while on premises, we'll operate as your "Management Consultant."

How Much Does It Cost ?

The cost for the 200-Point Fraud Alert And Security Evaluation is FREE to qualified businesses with a valid promotion code. Regular price $495.00 + GST.

To arrange for yours call (877)362-6324, e-mail getprotected@lyndonconrad.com or register online at www.lyndonconrad.com.

